

Tuesday, October 16, 2007

EpiCentre adds piano bar to tenant list

Charlotte Business Journal

Howl at The Moon Inc., a Cincinnati-based chain of dual piano and singalong bars, will open in Charlotte at the EpiCentre project in February.

It will be the company's 14th location.

The Ghazi Co. is developing the EpiCentre, a $100 million, 53-story residential tower and entertainment complex at the 3.2-acre site of the former Charlotte Convention Center.

The uptown project, which Ghazi is pursuing as a joint venture with Flaherty & Collins of Indianapolis, will feature a mix of condos, restaurants, offices and shops as well as a 175-room hotel.

All contents of this site © American City Business Journals Inc. All rights reserved.